Our core values: Welcome. Grow. Serve.

Greetings, DCC!

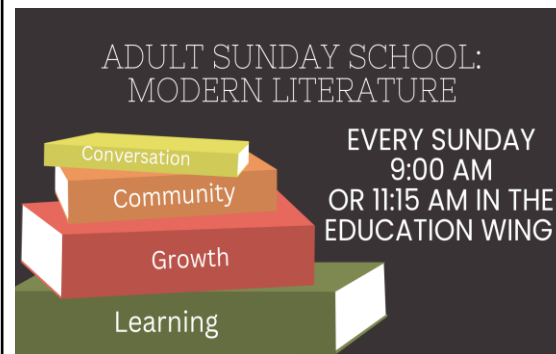

Summer is almost over, at least according to the calendar. It appears Mother Nature is planning to hang on to summer-like temperatures for the foreseeable future, though. I hope you are staying cool.

I don't want to conclude the summer without thanking all of you who took on some extra work during Rev. Hubbard's sabbatical. I appreciate all you have done. As I write this article, Rev. Hubbard will be back in a week! Her first Sunday back in worship will be September 6th. She will be back in the office September 1st!

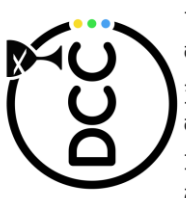

With Rev. Hubbard back, it is time to gear up for the start of fall programming! Connections (6th-12th grades) and Joyful Path (3rd-5th grades) will begin Wednesday, September 9th, at 5:30 pm. I hope you will pass the word along to any young people in grades 3rd-12th in your life. It's going to be a great year!

As we begin fall, it will be good for our hearts to spend a little bit of time with Dolly. Dolly Parton radiated goodness. She was kind, generous, funny, and so talented. During our September sermon series, "The Gospel According to Dolly," we will remember her music and the way she reflected love into this world. I hope you will leave every Sunday feeling a little lighter. The series starts September 13th.

In October, our stewardship series begins. It's called "There Our Hearts Will Be: Sharing What Matters." The series will emphasize generosity and life in community. We will ask and answer some questions like: Why is the kind of community we create at DCC important? What makes a community? What is special about our shared ministry? I hope to see you in worship this fall!

Hi friends!

As I step away from my role here, I am filled with gratitude for the years I have had the privilege of serving this community. It has been such a joy to grow alongside so many wonderful children and families and to be part of the life of this church.

While I'm beginning a new chapter professionally, I'm thankful that DCC will continue to be a part of my family's life and I look forward to experiencing this church in a new way!

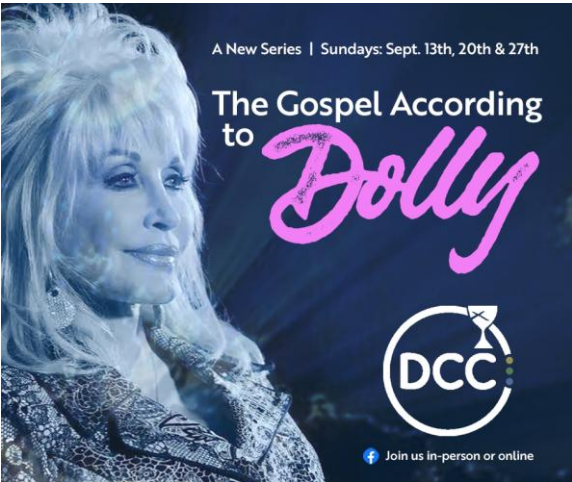

Thank you for the love, support, and memories.

With love,
Alex

Last, as we welcome Rev. Hubbard back, we celebrate a sweet ending to a new beginning with Alex Buckner. Alex has done an amazing job as our Director of Early Childhood Ministries. She has nurtured DCC children and their families through programs, fun events, and relationships. I am so excited for her new adventure and so glad the Buckners will still be part of the DCC community. Be sure to thank her for all the ways she has shared God’s love with our community!

Peace,
Kelley

Thank You!

We at Phillips Theological Seminary write to you with profound gratitude for your faithful support. Your partnership makes possible the formation of ministers, chaplains, educators, and nonprofit leaders who will proclaim Good News, minister in congregations, and work for God's justice in the world with integrity, compassion, and hope.

Your congregation's support, whether through financial gifts or prayer, is transforming lives, bringing hope to our communities, and renewing the church. Thank you for believing in our students and their callings.
